DPAC Report – Josephine Leonard

- Focus on social emotional learning
- District will revisit district plan for post-Covid effects
- Challenges of managing an unexpected increase of 400+ students
- MyEdBC coming back in September
- Movie licence – district licence is complicated

- DPAC pays for BCCPAC membership
- Presentations are coming up – listed on their website – sessions will be repeated in the New Year if you miss it
- Next meeting in January

Fundraisers:

- Purdy's – Pick up ETA Dec 4 or 5 – profit was $572.19
- TCBY Treat Day – $356.25 – 285 cups – easy to run and will do it again, no mistakes
- Cobs Bread – mention your child goes to Chief Dan George – make sure to write it on receipt before you go
- Panago – Nov/Dec - $14 coupons for a medium pizza, valid for 90 days, Canada wide, CDG makes $4 off each coupon
- Subway Hot Lunch – order by Dec 3 www.schoolcashionline.com for Dec 15; choose the right toppings; there is no meat on the veggie sub; no late orders
- Bake Sale – Dec 19 at the band concert – Melissa Markle is running it; CDG can get in the church at 4:30 on Tuesday; need a team of parents to price it and move it to the church (4-6 parents) – need those volunteers tonight or cancel it; timing at the concert is too limited for the bake sale – decision is to cancel bake sale at band concert
- Potential for a bottle drive over Christmas break – set up account at recycling depot for parents to drop off – depot counts and credits the school's account

Other Business:

- Noon hour supervisors needed – reach out to Melanie Trudeau
- Scholastic book fair wrap up – cheque to Scholastic is being mailed out tomorrow – total sales $4468.65 so we get 50% back in Scholastic dollars, $25 delivery fee, $2052.93 is what we get back – thank you to all of the volunteers! Need someone to run it next year.
- Playground - Committee would be helpful to take some of the load off of Melanie.
- Staff Appreciation – Dec 4 at noon – need more food:
 - can be made or bought
 - delivered to school by 11 am
 - need side and main dishes
 - can give a cash or cheque donation – bring to the office by Friday
 - it is for staff only
